Virtual Police Station to help citizens lodge FIRs on vehicle theft cases online

ROAD ACCIDENT CASE MODULE TO DO AWAY WITH THE ROLE OF MIDDLEMEN, WHICH WILL, IN EFFECT REDUCE CORRUPTION

Bhubaneswar, Jan 28: As part of the 5T initiative, Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik Tuesday launched three transformational projects including virtual police station of Odisha Police aimed at reducing human interface with police stations.

reducing numan interface with police stations.
At a special function, Naveen launched the three projects—Virtual Police Station, Road Accident Case Documents Module and Medico Legal Opinion System at Lok Seva Bhawan here.
"One of the main objectives under 5T is to reduce the necessity to go to the government offices. The virtual police station that has been inaugurated today is a huge step in this regard," the Chief Minister said.
One of the major problems faced by the public while lodging FIR in theft cases is jurisdiction issue. With the launch of Virtual Police Station in the motor vehicle theft cases, the public can now directly lodge FIRs online in a hassle-free manner, he said.

Another major issue relating to settlement of insurance claim in road accident cases was availability of relevant documents. This will be solved by the online Road Accident Case Module, he said, adding. "This will do away with the role of middlemen, which will, in effect reduce corruption."

The Medico Legal Opinion System will help both police and doctors, ensure transparency, reduce delay and also help in reducing extraneous considerations or interference while giving medical opinion in sensitive cases.

mechanism established at the State Crime Records Bureau in Bhubaneswar. It will facilitate online registration of FIR in unknown motor vehicle theft cases. If a case remains undetected for 21 days, final form shall be auto generated at CCTNS. It will benefit citizens for claiming insurance in motor vehicle theft cases. A citizen can also file FIR through citizens portal or Sahayata mobile app. Road Accident Case Documents Module is a web-based application which can be accessed by visiting the site www.imsop.odisha.govin This module will help insurance companies or the victims in downloading the required documents like FIR, final form, spot map, MVI report, inquest, post mortem report, driving license, registration certificate or any other document as required.

The government has implemented the project in an aim to remove the role of middlemen and expedite the process of insurance claims. Complainants can access the site by filling up requisite details and OTP sent to mobile number mentioned in FIR. Minister of State for Home Dibya Sankar Mishra said that the effects of 5T initiatives are visible in the Home department. There is a visible transformation in the behaviour towards women and children at police stations, he stated. DGP Abny outlined the details of the three initiatives. 5T Secretary VR Pandian appreciated the transformation the police department is witnessing. He said the government is receiving good feedback on police activities in the districts.

Courthere The accused, Bikram Mishra, is a resident of Simulia area in Balasore. Mishra was sent to jail after his bail plea was rejected by the Sessions court here. Mishra had approached the High Court seeking relief, but the court had asked him to seek bail from the Khurda sessions court after surrendering before it. Police sources claimed the he would be taken on remand for further interrogation in the case. Notably, the deceased, Deepail Priyadarshini Jena, of Basuderpur in Bhadrak and Mishra were in a relationship for the past several years. Mishra was present along with Deepall at the lattler's rented house in Lingipur area under Dhauli police limits when er sister went outside to meet a friend October 19 evening. Later, Mishra reportetly called herself in a room and was not responding. Her sister rushed to the spot but by that time Mishra had left the place. Her sister reached the spot to find Deepali's body hanging.

STRESS CLAIMS SIKHYA SAHAYAK'S LIFE

Kanas: A sikhya sahayak of Uttarchilika Nodal Upper Primary School under Kanas block died at a private hospital in Bhubaneswar while being treated for high blood pressure Monday. The sikhya sahayak, Madhu Singh, 33, had been hospitalised after he vomited blood a few days ago. According to sources, Singh, a resident of Badashola village under Baripada Sadar police limits in Mayurbhanj had been teaching at the Uttarchilika school since 2012. "Singh was under severe depression as he failed to clear the OTET whereas many of his colleagues had cleared the test. Subsequently, the services of his colleagues were also regularised. Singh was suffering from high BP and he started vomiting blood January 20," said a source.

INCREASED ANXIETY, EYE-AILMENTS ON THE RISE AMONG MOBILE ADDICTS, SAY DOCS

MANISH KUMAR, OP

Bhubaneswar, Jan 28: Using smartphone before going to bed? Beware. Doctors have warned that cell phone addiction may make you vulnerable to many diseases.

The young and the middle-aged are now said to be becoming avid users of their digital gadgets to access social media, Netflix, TikTok, YouTube videos and other contents of different forms available in the cyberspace just before going to sleep. Several psychiatrists and oppthalmologists this reporter talked to claimed that such habits are interfering with the normal biological clock of the human body and causing strain in the brain cells and eyes making the mobile leaddiction more vulnerable to lifestyle, eyerelated and psychological disorders.

"Such habits are increasing among the mobile users. Blue lights emitting from cell phones cause harm to the brain as it stimulates the brain cells when they actually need rest. It affects the normal function of the body and interferes with the also added that with regular in-

While being engrossed on viewing their favourite content on their mobile, the users often interfere with the normal blink ratio which adds stress to their tear film. Normal blinking ensures even spread of the film on the eye surface which gets disrupted in mobile addiest," said Dr Anurag Mishra, an ophthalmologist from Cuttack.

Mishra claimed that intensive use of digital devices by the younger generation is resulting in a section of people with eye allments like dried eyes. "Such diseases were earlier confined to the people of old age but now these have started hitting the youths too. We need to substitute good habits like reading to avert the harmful effects of cell phone addiction."
