Koregaon Bhima inquiry panel decides to summon Sharad Pawar

PUNE, FEB 25

Koregaon Bhima THE Inquiry Commission has decided to summon NCP chief Sharad Pawar for deposition in the case of caste violence near here in 2018.

The commission's chairman, retired Justice J N Patel, noted that Pawar has filed an affidavit before the panel and he would be summoned to depose, the judicial panel's lawyer Ashish Satpute fold PTI on Tuesday.

"A summon to this effect will be issued," he said. Pawar is likely to be summoned during the last phase of the hearing by the commission, the lawyer added.

Earlier this month, the Shiv Sena-led state government gave the "final" extension to the commission till April 8 this year and asked the panel to submit its report.

Last week, social group Vivek Vichar Manch member Sagar Shinde filed an application before the commission, seeking summoning of Pawar in view of certain statements made by him in the media about the 2018 caste violence. In his plea, Shinde cited a press conference of Pawar held on February 18. As per the application, at the press meet Pawar alleged that right-wing activists Milind Ekbote and Sambhaji Bhide had created a "different" atmosphere in Koregaon-Bhima, located on outskirts of Pune city, and its vicinity. "In the same press conference, Mr Pawar also alleges that the role of Pune city police commissioner is doubtful and must be investigated. These statements are within the purview of the terms of reference of this commission and therefore, they are relevant,"

Shinde said the plea. The applicant said he has reasons to believe Pawar has relevant and additional information, apart from what he has already shared in his earlier affidavit filed before the panel regarding the violence and other related matters. Pawar filed the affidavit before the commission on October 8, 2018.

The commission is headed by former Bombay High Court Chief Justice J N Patel. Former Maharashtra chief secretary Sumit Mullick is the other member of the judicial panel. The commission was set up when the BJP was in power in Maharashtra.

Pawar's party is now a key constituent in the Shiv Sena-led government in the state. The former Union minister, in his affidavit, stated, "I would not be in a position to factually point out the chronology of the said events as that would be the domain of the existing law and order machinery." He also stated that he would not be in a position to specifically make allegations against any particular organisation.

"However, it is unfortunate that the state government and law and enforcement authorities failed to protect the interest of the common man residing at Koregaon Bhima and its vicinity," he said.

Pawar further stated that the active role of "right- wing" forces behind the violence at Koregaon Bhima cannot be ruled out. However, concrete evidence in this regard can be gathered only by law enforcement agencies of the state, he said in the affidavit.

Gathering of anti-social elements in large numbers at Koregaon Bhima indicated the failure of law enforcement agencies, he told the panel. "Hence, the state of Maharashtra has to own the responsibility of a failed law and order situation on January 1, stated.–PTI 2018," he

Farmers demand streamlined token system PBD BUREAU

SAMBALPUR, FEB 25

THE members of the Jay Durga Anchalika Krushak Sangathan on Tuesday demanded streamlining of the token system introduced for paddy procurement in State.

"We don't protest token system, but we protest the way it is implemented," said Aswini Pruseth, the president of the organization.

Pruseth and other members said that if a farmer has 80 quintals of paddy, he is getting token to sale 70 quintal.

"Then what he does with the rest 10 quintals. There are two options left before him. Either he has to sale the 10 quintal to the miller directly at much lower price or has to wait for next token for 10 quintal. And when he gets the token for the rest 10 quintals and go to market yard for sale, he has to pay the vehicle rent in full that is another loss for him," said the farmers. Hence, the token system is faulty, they claimed.

Dhenkanal bags second position in completion of PMAY

DHENKANAL : Dhenkanal district has achieved the second position in allotment and completion of housing under Pradhan Mnatri Awas Yojana (PMAY) in the current financial year till February 23. Sambalpur district tops the list in achievement. According to officials, the district administration has completed 11,577 houses against target of 17751 (65.224pc) by February 23. The officials said more than 85 per cent of beneficiaries received their installments for construction of houses. Notably, the Government pays Rs 1.20 lakh for each house under PMAY. If any beneficiary completes his/her house construction within six months, and extra Rs 10,000 incentive is paid while the beneficiary gets an extra incentive of Rs 20,000 if the construction is completed within four months. DRDA Project Director Narottam Behera said the officials, including the BDO, are monitoring the progress on a daily basis. "The Collector and me share the progress on official whatsapp group," he said. -PBD
