

I think (Sumit Nagal) knows what he can bring. That's why I think he's going to have a very solid career.

THUMBNAILS

Idea downplayed: Sport minister Kiren Rijiju has played down the calls to boycott the 2022 Birmingham Commonwealth Games over shooting's exclusion, saying it was too early to take a decision of such magnitude. Shooting has been axed from the 2022 edition.

Lukaku strikes: Romelu Lukaku scored on his debut for Inter Milan as they made a flying start under new coach Antonio Conte with a 4-0 win over Lecce in Serie A on Monday. Marcelo Brozovic and Stefano Sensi gave Inter a 2-0 halftime lead before Lukaku struck.

Duo hurt: Paris Saint-Germain star Kylian Mbappe will be out for four weeks and Edinson Cavani for three weeks after both came off injured in a Ligue 1 match against Toulouse on Sunday. French World Cup-winning star Mbappe limped off after hurting his left hamstring.

Serena routs Sharapova in Open start

"Just tried to forget it, play tough, stay with him. It was a tough first set for me," Federer said

AGENCE FRANCE-PRESSE
NEW YORK, 27 AUGUST:

Serena Williams (in photo) overwhelmed Maria Sharapova 6-1, 6-1 yesterday to reach the second round of the US Open in search of her 24th Grand Slam title while "rusty" Roger Federer rallied past Indian qualifier Sumit Nagal.

Six-time US Open champion Williams crushed the five-time major winner from Russia in only 59 minutes, beating Sharapova for the 19th consecutive time and improving to 20-2 in their all-time rivalry.

"Whenever I play her I bring out some of my best tennis," Williams said. "When you play her you have to be super focused." Williams, who next plays 121st-ranked US wildcard Caty McNally, blasted five aces and 16 winners while Sharapova made 20 unforced errors.

"She served really well. Found her spots really well," Sharapova said. "I think that's where she hurt me a lot." Williams is hoping to match the all-time record of 24 Slam singles titles won by Margaret Court.

Swiss third seed Federer, who has a men's record 20 Slam titles, dropped the opening set in 36 minutes, then returned to form and defeated Nagal 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4.

"I played like my beard today. I was rusty," Federer said. The shock first set was a wake-up call, a 38-year-old legend who was 61-0 in Grand Slam first rounds since the 2003 French Open trailing a 22-year-old from New Delhi who is ranked 190th and fell to 0-5 in tour-level matches.

"Just tried to forget it, play tough, stay with him. It was a tough first set for me," Federer said.

"He came back and played really strong. I was missing a lot of balls and trying to cut back on unforced errors.

"It all came back just in time." Sharapova, the 2006 US Open winner who defeated Williams in the 2004 Wimbledon final, upset Simona Halep in the first round two years ago but could not revive that magic.

The 37-year-old American said that after learning she would face Sharapova, "every practice after that was super focused and super intense."

Eighth-seeded Williams rolled through the first set in 24 minutes then broke to open the second. She denied Sharapova two break points to hold in the fifth game, an impressive backhand winner ending the threat.

"That was definitely a big point for me," Williams said.

"You can't let her get any momentum." Williams broke again to 4-1, rescued three break points in the sixth game to hold serve and broke again to advance, showing no sign of the back spasms that limited her pre-Open play.

Djokovic cruises
Top-ranked defending champion Novak Djokovic cruised into the second round while French Open champion Ashleigh Barty and third seed Karolina Pliskova struggled but advanced.

Serbian star Djokovic, who has won four of the past five Grand Slam singles titles, dispatched Spain's 76th-ranked Roberto Carballes Baena 6-4, 6-1, 6-4. "Getting out of the blocks, it takes time for you to feel comfortable on the court," Djokovic said. Djokovic, trying to become the first back-to-back US Open winner since Federer won from 2004-2008, will next face Argentina's 56th-ranked Juan Ignacio Londero.

Djokovic owns 16 Grand Slam titles, four off Federer's record and two back of Spain's Rafael Nadal. Together the "Big Three" have won the past 11 Slam titles and are again heavy favourites.

Australian second seed Barty overcame a horrible start to oust 80th-ranked Zarina Diyas of Kazakhstan 1-6, 6-3, 6-2. Barty made 19 unforced errors to drop the first set in 28 minutes, but took nine of the last 11 games to book a date with American Lauren Davis. Pliskova, a 2016 US Open runner-up, edged 138th-ranked Czech compatriot Tereza Martinova 7-6 (8/6), 7-6 (7/3) after exchanging service breaks over the first six games.

Russian fifth seed Daniil Medvedev, an ATP winner at Cincinnati, beat India's Prajnesh Gunneswaran 6-4, 6-1, 6-2 in 85 minutes. He faces Bolivia's Hugo Dellien next.

Japanese seventh seed Kei Nishikori, the 2014 US Open runner-up, won 6-1, 4-1, when Argentine qualifier Marco Tringolli retired with a back injury.

Nagal showed incredible composure: Bhupathi

AGENCIES
NEW YORK, 27 AUGUST:

Mahesh Bhupathi has spoken well of 22-year-old Sumit Nagal's showing against five-time champion and current world No 3 Roger Federer in the first round of the US Open. Though Nagal had lost the match, Bhupathi said that he felt that the youngster had shown "incredible" composure to bag the first set.

Federer yesterday overcame a scare from Indian qualifier Nagal to win 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4 in a match that lasted two hours and 30 minutes.

It was for the first time since 2003 that Federer had lost a set in his first-round match at the US Open. Before Nagal, Rohan Bopanna (7-6, 6-2 in 2006) and Somdev Devvarman (6-3, 6-3 in 2011 & 6-2, 6-1, 6-1 in 2013) were the other Indians to take on the five-time US Open champion.

"He showed incredible composure against the greatest player in the world and held his own," Bhupathi told IANS.

"I think both he and his coaching team should be very proud of the improvements they have made this year," the Indian Davis Cup non-playing captain added.

World No. 190, Nagal, walked onto Arthur Ashe Stadium for his first Grand Slam main draw match without having ever earned a tour-level victory.
