Mirdha Toppo spl secy to CM

Bhubaneswar: The state government on Monday appointed OAS officer Mirdha Toppo as special secretary to Chief Minister Mohan Charan Majhi. Toppo is currently serving as the project director of district urban development agency (DUDA).

In a first, Vig finds 84 acre land owned by a govt official

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bhubaneswar

A Vigilance raid on joint director in the directorate of Soil Conservation and Watershed Development, Dayanidhi Bagh, over allegations of amassing disproportionate assets (DA) has revealed that he was in possession of a whopping 84 acre of land and buildings worth crores.

Vigilance officials said this is the first time they unearthed such a large land area in the name of a government official and his family members.

Bagh was earlier posted as the project director of the watershed wing in Rayagada district. In May, the anti-corruption agency had arrested four officials of the watershed wing in Rayagada for allegedly misappropriating funds to the tune of ₹20 lakh. He was since under the scanner of Vigilance and recently posted in the Soil Conservation directorate in Bhubaneswar.

During searches on Monday, Bagh was found in possession of a farmhouse on over 40 acre of land with drip irrigation facility and agricultural equipment worth ₹1 crore in Bijaraguda, another farmhouse over 6 acre land amounting to ₹46.12 lakh at Phatakote, a 27 acre land in Nabarangpur and 11 acre on the outskirts of Bhawanipatna in Kalahandi district.

Bagh and his family members also own a 3BHK flat measuring 1,450 sq ft at Gothapatna area in the capital city, one building in Chandrasekharpur Housing Board Colony here, an under-construction building spread over 3,000 sq ft and a shopping complex consisting of five shops in Nabarangpur town. Besides, Vigilance traced Bagh's bank deposits amounting to ₹58.41 lakh, gold ornaments weighing 312 gm and household articles worth ₹9 lakh.

Market complex of Dayanidhi Bagh in Nabarangpur town

Earlier in the day, the anti-corruption agency carried out searches at eight places linked to him. Searches were carried out at Bagh's office chamber here, house in Junagarh, house of his in-laws in Dharamgarh, flat in Gothapatna, house in Chandrasekharpur, under-construction building in Nabarangpur town and two buildings registered in his wife's name at Chutiaguda mouza in Nabarangpur.

Sources said, the government had sanctioned around ₹3 crore under the MGNREGS for excavating farm ponds in Kashipur block of the district in 2022-23 and 2023-24 financial years. However, the Vigilance received complaints that the officials, including the four who were arrested in May, misappropriated the funds without digging the farm ponds, and embezzled the money.

Administrative probe begins into Puri Rath Yatra stampede

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bhubaneswar

A day after three devotees died and several others sustained injuries in a stampede near Gundicha temple in Puri, development commissioner-cum-additional chief secretary Anu Garg on Monday started her investigation into the incident from the spot .

Chief Minister Mohan Charan Majhi had on Sunday ordered an administrative inquiry headed by Garg into the incident. She has been asked to submit a report within a month.

Garg interacted with the chief administrator of Shree Jagannath Temple Administration (SJTA), Puri collector and SP, besides other officials and temple servitors. The development commissioner said she has been entrusted with the responsibility to find out the reason behind the unfortunate incident and suggest the measures that can be taken so that it doesn't repeat in the future.

"We will speak to everyone involved in the process and review all possible video footages available. What SOPs were there and what were followed will also be checked. Those who know anything about the incident or have any kind of evidence can also depose. After cross-checking everything, the report will be submitted to the government," she told mediapersons.

The focus is now on the smooth conduct of the remaining part of Rath Yatra like Sandhya Darshan, Bahuda Yatra, Suna Besha, Adhar Pana, and Niladri Bije, she added.

Addl CP in soup over 'break leg' order, Cong files plaint

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bhubaneswar

COMMISSIONERATE Police was left red-faced after a video of additional CP Narasingha Bhol directing the police personnel to break the legs of the youth Congress workers, who were protesting near Chief Minister Mohan Charan Majhi's residence on Sunday, if they attempted to breach the last barricade erected there, went viral.

In the video, Bhol could be seen walking to the last barricade and instructing the police personnel to break the legs of the protesters who reached till there. "If anybody reaches here, break their legs. Do not catch them, just break their legs. We are standing at a distance to catch them. Whoever breaks a leg, come to me and take a reward," he said.

Terming Bhol's instructions to the cops as provocative, Odisha Pradesh Youth Congress president Ranjit Patra and other party workers lodged a complaint with Capital police demanding stringent action against the senior police officer as per law. Meanwhile, speaking to TNIE, Bhol said his comment was taken out of context. "I just asked the police personnel to remain prepared if the protesters turned violent," he added.

The youth Congress workers on Sunday staged protest near the chief minister's residence over the alleged mismanagement during Rath Yatra in Puri and the death of three devotees during a stampede near Gundicha Temple in the wee hours of the day.

BMC OFFICER ASSAULT

OAS officers to go on mass leave from today; Naveen flays BJP govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bhubaneswar

THE Odisha Administrative Service (OAS) Association announced to go on mass leave from Tuesday to protest the attack on BMC additional commissioner Ratnakar Sahoo by alleged BJP-supported hooligans on the corporation premises on Monday.

The state civil services body in its letter to all the OAS officers termed the brutal assault on Sahoo in broad daylight an attempt to humiliate government servants and instill fear among them.

"The incident is not an isolated one. A narrative has been set in the past one year to humiliate government servants and cause physical assault and mental agony to them. It is not only unprecedented and deeply disturbing but also represents a grave threat to the safety and dignity of officers across the state who are committed to upholding public service," the association said.

> The incident is not an isolated one. A narrative has been set in the past one year to humiliate government servants and cause physical assault and mental agony to them

The association sought immediate and exemplary action against those involved in the attack and demanded implementation of robust measures for the safety and protection of officers at the workplace. "Until then, as a mark of protest and to express our collective concern, members of the association will remain on mass leave," it stated.

Leaders cutting across partylines too condemned the brutal assault on the senior bureaucrat during BMC's public grievance hearing on Monday. Leader of Opposition and BJD president Naveen Patnaik said the people named by the officer in his FIR have behaved like criminals. "If a senior officer is not safe in his own office, what law and order will ordinary citizens expect from the government?" Naveen asked.

"I only hope that the CM directs immediate action to be taken to restore faith in his government and not allow this heinous act to go unpunished like the assault on an officer by the ex-Governor's son. The people of Odisha will not forgive this," he said.

BJP leader and Bhubaneswar MP Aparajita Sarangi also condemned the attack and said she feels ashamed of it. "We are proud of the ideology of Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and this kind of behaviour is certainly not in line with the philosophy and ideology of the party," Sarangi said while calling for stringent action against the culprits.

"Without decency and discipline, there cannot be any development. Hope the law takes its course," the BJP MP said.
