

SC cancels actor Darshan's bail in murder case

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY
@ New Delhi

IN a major setback to Kannada actors Darshan Thoogudeepa and Pavithra Gowda and five others, the Supreme Court on Thursday in its decision set aside the Karnataka High Court's order of granting bail to them in the Renukaswamy murder case.

"The order (Karnataka High Court) is set aside, and the bail granted to the accused is set aside," said a two-judge bench of the top court, headed by Justice JB Pardiwala and Justice R Mahadevan, on Thursday.

The court, which had earlier reserved the judgement on July 24, pronounced the order on Thursday after hearing an appeal filed by the Karnataka government challenging the HC order granting bail to Darshan, Gowda and other accused persons in the Renukaswamy murder case. While reading out the operative part of the verdict, Justice Pardiwala said, "Justice Mahadevan has pronounced a very erudite judgment. It is infeasible. It conveys a message that however big the accused may be, he or she is not above the law."

He also stated that it contains a strong message that the justice delivery system at any level should ensure at any cost that rule of law is maintained. "No man is above law or below it. Nor do we ask anyone's permission when we obey it. The need of the hour is to maintain rule of law at all times," Justice Pardiwala said, while pronouncing the order for the bench.

Strictly warning those people who provide special treatment to the accused in jail, the top court added, the day we come to know that the accused persons are being provided 5-star treatment, the first step would be to place the jail superintendent into suspension along with all other officials.

The court asked Sidharth Luthra, appearing for the Karnataka govt, that if it got to know about any wrongdoing in jails about being provided 5-star treatment, then we will call and summon you to answer.

In earlier hearings, the court termed as a "perverse exercise" of discretionary power used by the Karnataka HC in granting bail to Kannada actor, Darshan, Gowda and five others in the Renukaswamy murder case, as it had on July 24 reserved its decision on the appeal filed by the State govt seeking cancellation of their bail.

No immediate threat to nurse Nimisha Priya, SC informed

NEW DELHI

THE Supreme Court was informed on Thursday that there was "no immediate threat" to Indian nurse Nimisha Priya who is on a death row in Yemen for murder.

The counsel for petitioner organisation Save Nimisha Priya International Action Council, which is extending legal support to Priya, requested a bench of Justices Vikram Nath and Sandeep Mehta to adjourn the matter.

The apex court was hearing a plea seeking a direction to the Centre to use diplomatic channels to save the 38-year-old nurse from Palakkad in Kerala who was convicted of murdering her Yemeni business partner in 2017. "Negotiations are going on. As of now there is no immediate threat. Kindly adjourn it by four weeks. Hopefully, everything will be over by that time," the counsel said.

"Let this matter be listed after eight weeks," the bench then said. The petitioner's counsel said they would mention the matter before the top court if there was any urgency.

Priya was convicted in 2017, sentenced to death in 2020 and her final appeal rejected in 2023. She is imprisoned in a jail in the Yemen capital Sana'a.

According to Yemeni court documents, Priya allegedly drugged and murdered Talal Abdo Mahdi in July 2017. PTI

Young architects must be equipped to create future-ready spaces: VSSUT V-C

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Sambalpur

VICE-chancellor of Veer Surendra Sai University of Technology (VSSUT) Dipak Kumar Sahoo stressed the need to nurture design thinking and innovation among budding architects.

Speaking at the two-day design workshop Evolve Design 2.0, which concluded on Thursday, he said that architecture goes far beyond aesthetics and structural safety these days, creating sustainable, inclusive and future-ready spaces.

Organised by the Indian Institute of Architects (IIA) Sambalpur sub-centre under the Odisha chapter in collaboration with VSSUT, the workshop brought together practicing architects and architecture students from across Odisha for an immersive learning experience to bridge the gap between academia and professional practice in architecture.

Students from leading institutions including NIT-Rourke

Sending dogs to shelters is not a solution: Bhagwat

FROM P1...

"The crisis can be solved by regulating the street dog population and not by sending them to shelters," he said.

"While milking cows, Indians take some milk and leave the rest for the calf which is an art of striking a balance between man and nature. The nature should be conserved by maintaining a balance between development and the environment," he said.

Bhagwat went to Puri where he visited the Shree Jagannath Temple to seek blessings of the deities and then met Shankaracharya Nischalananda Saraswati.

The RSS chief arrived here on Wednesday evening. He is scheduled to hoist the national flag at Utkal Bipanna Sahayata Samiti office in the capital city and address the gathering on Independence Day.
