

Old age home 'Aalayam' by MCL taking shape
(11-07-2020)

Come October, the new building for old age women at Phuljharan in Jujumura Sambalpur will be ready for accommodating 50 elderly 'Maatru Shakti'.

This Old age home set-up is being looked after by Red Cross Society Sambalpur. MCL under its CSR initiative is constructing 12 new living rooms along with washrooms, electrical fitting etc. Approved cost of the project is 72 Lakhs.

Once completed, the building, named as 'Aalayam' will be the new home for these abandoned elderly people who are presently living in the make shift arrangements.

Through this CSR project, company conveys gratitude to 'Maatru Shakti' and offers them live a comfortable and dignified life.
